Greetings

Due to the overwhelming response, NABCJ has met the required hotel room block. If for any reason something arises and you will not be able to attend the Conference, we request that you cancel your reservation through the NABCJ Housing Bureau via email at anderbea@comcast.net.

If you are trying to make a room reservation please use the room reservation link below to complete the form and please send to Bea Anderson via email at: anderbea@comcast.net. The NABCJ Housing Bureau will prioritize your reservation. Do not go through the hotel for your room reservation. We are working with the hotel to obtain access to additional rooms.

Again thank you for becoming an integral part of this Training Institute.

See you in New Orleans
