U.S Customs and Border Protection (CBP) is currently hiring entry-level U.S. Customs and Border Protection Officers (CBP). A CBPO job opportunity announcement is currently open on USAJOBS until July 31, 2016.

You are our best recruiters! Help us fill our ranks with individuals who share our core values – vigilance, integrity, and service to county.

Encourage your friends, neighbors, and family members to visit www.cbp.gov/careers to learn more about the occupation that provides frontline protection of our Nation’s borders.

The Office of Field Operations (OFO) is responsible for border security- including antiterrorism, immigration, anti-smuggling, trade compliance, agriculture protection- while simultaneously facilitating the lawful trade and travel at U.S. ports of entry that is critical to our nation’s economy.

We depend on reliable, trustworthy, and fit-for-duty officers to ensure the accomplishment of our mission. To meet these standards, applicants undergo a hiring process that includes:

• Background investigation
• Polygraph examination
• Medical examination
• Physical fitness tests
• Drug test
• Structured interview

To find out more information and apply to this exciting career opportunity, visit www.cbp.gov/careers